

Ann doesn't have to explain her hometown so much now that she shares it with her bank CEO.

ANN LOVES EVERYTHING ABOUT FAIRHOPE, from old friends to the new faces she sees downtown.

Walking through town, this second-generation banker finds herself talking up our unique city and its hometown bank with neighbors, long-time customers, even first-time visitors to the area.

Ann, you see, enjoys talking to tourists. She's just glad her bank isn't run by one.

Ann Rumley,
Senior Vice President
