

George Noonan began learning about the needs of small businesses at an early age.

LONG BEFORE HE WENT TO GRADUATE SCHOOL, GEORGE NOONAN knew a lot about the challenges faced by small businesses and retailers. He learned all about them around the family dinner table in North Baldwin County.

After college, George worked more than a decade in the family business before he began his banking career. So when he sits down to talk about what your business needs to be a success, it's easy for him to understand your point of view.

We know it gives George an unfair advantage over all of the other bankers. That's why we're glad he works for us—and you.
